

Meridian Credit Union Values Guelph's Syrian Refugees

With the continued support from a cross-section of the local business community, Meridian Credit Union has recently committed to offering competitive services in an effort to ensure a smooth transition for Guelph's Syrian Refugee families. True to Meridian's Commitment to Communities, Meridian will offer to help the transition into the Guelph community by offering families with the following:

- A chequing account with no service charges for 1 year coupled with an online savings account;
- Small safe deposit box with first year fee waived;
- CUETS MasterCard with Credit Union Specific Guarantee $500 maximum limit until Member can qualify under the New to Canada program or provide security; and
- Preferred pricing on Mortgages/loans/LOC's and investments

Through Meridian's Commitment to Communities program, they support local communities across Ontario, to build better, more prosperous lives by continuously working toward five key goals:

- Improving Financial Literacy
- Investing in Communities
- Engaging Employees
- Contributing to a Healthier Environment

Meridian operates more than 70 branches across southwestern Ontario with 4 local branches conveniently located at (Clair Rd. & Gordon Rd.) (Speedvale Ave.) (Stone Square) (Wyndham St.)

For more information on the Chamber's Corporate Challenge and to request donation information, please contact Adam Stewart, Guelph Refugee Forum Corporate Challenge Coordinator, by email at adam@guelphchamber.com.